

Support Your Local Library

Contributed by
Last Updated Tuesday, 18 September 2012

Friends Organizations were formed to foster closer relations between the libraries and the communities they serve. They may assist the library by providing volunteers, helping raise funds, promoting library programs within the community, providing a channel for individuals and organizations to express ideas, and making suggestions for library use and services.

Membership is open to the public. Anyone may join after paying a small yearly membership fee. Your local library will have membership forms.

Each branch of the Darlington County Library System has its own Friends Organization. Listed below are the current Presidents of the each group. Contact information is available at the respective libraries.

Darlington - Lois Baldwin

Hartsville - Doug Bush

Lamar - Fran Knotts

Society Hill - Jean Reynolds
