Support the Friends of the Darlington Library The Friends of the Darlington Library was formed to foster closer relations between the Library and the community it serves. It assists the Library by providing volunteers, helping raise funds, promoting library programs within the community, providing a channel for individuals and organizations to express ideas, and making suggestions for library use and services. Membership is open to the public. Anyone may join after paying a small yearly membership fee. The Darlington Library has membership forms. The current President of the Darlington Friends of the Library is Lois Baldwin.
